

LATINA ENTREPRENEURSHIP CONFERENCE

> 2025 <

> About the Conference <

The Latina Entrepreneurship Conference is an annual conference hosted by the Latina Leadership Podcast and beginning in 2025 It will be presented for the first time by its sister nonprofit organization, Amigas and Friends Network. The conference features keynote speakers, fireside conversations, expert panels and one- on- one Charla conversations with leaders from various business sectors. Its program is annually developed with direct input from Latina entrepreneurs. More than 500 Latina and non-Latina women founders have attended in person and online to date.
